The Ideal Mother

Proverbs 31:10-31 (CSB)

Leader: Who can find a wife of noble character? She is far more precious than jewels.

Congregation: The heart of her husband trusts in her, and he will not lack anything good.

Leader: She rewards him with good, not evil, all the days of her life.

Congregation: She selects wool and flax and works with willing hands.

Leader: She is like the merchant ships, bringing her food from far away.

Congregation: She rises while it is still night and provides food for her household and portions for her female servants.

Leader: She evaluates a field and buys it; she plants a vineyard with her earnings.

Congregation: She draws on her strength and reveals that her arms are strong.

Leader: She sees that her profits are good, and her lamp never goes out at night.

Congregation: She extends her hands to the spinning staff, and her hands hold the spindle.

Leader: Her hands reach out to the poor, and she extends her hands to the needy.

Congregation: She is not afraid for her household when it snows, for all in her household are doubly clothed.

Leader: She makes her own bed coverings; her clothing is fine linen and purple.

Congregation: Her husband is known at the city gates, where he sits among the elders of the land.

Leader: She makes and sells linen garments; she delivers belts to the merchants.

Congregation: Strength and honor are her clothing, and she can laugh at the time to come.

Leader: Her mouth speaks wisdom, and loving instruction is on her tongue.

Congregation: She watches over the activities of her household and is never idle.

Leader: Her children rise up and call her blessed; her husband also praises her:

Congregation: "Many women have done noble deeds, but you surpass them all!"

Leader: Charm is deceptive and beauty is fleeting, but a woman who fears the Lord will be praised.

All: Give her the reward of her labor, and let her works praise her at the city gates.
